SC buries Cha-cha bid

But law on people's initiative is upheld

By Lela B. Salazar

THE "GRAND DECEPTION" AND "GIANTIC fraud" cannot continue, but a new petition for a people's initiative to amend the 1987 Constitution may now be backed by an enabling law.

Still voting 8-7, the Supreme Court yesterday denied with finality the motion for reconsideration filed by acting officers, Sen. Lito Lora of Sigapag Bayan and the Office of the Solicitor General, on the dismissal of a petition for a people's initiative to Charter change preparatory to a shift to the semi-constitutional system.

But in a reversal of its 1997 ruling, the high court found Republic Act No. 9735, the initiative and referendum act, sufficient for the political process.

"The members of the court reiterate their position, as shown by their previous opinions already given when the decision herein was pronounced, that [RA] 9735 is well-considered and adequate to amend the Constitution through a people's initiative," it said in a resolution.

The seven who had voted on Oct. 25 to uphold Sigapag's petition (Solicitor Associate Justice Reynato Puno and Justices Leonardo Quinsion, Benito G. Gonsalves, Oscar Tinga, Maria Clara Nazario, Conrado Santos and President Mañosa Jr.) found RA 9735 sufficient, and were joined by three

Cayetano springs surprise on Arroyos

By Michael Lin-Uso

STRENGTH BACK AT THE ARROYOS, House Deputy Minority Leader Alan Peter Cayetano yesterday caught the explosion of President Macapagal-Arroyo's son and brother-in-law from Congress for allegedly receiving kickbacks from the illegal gambler game "patintero."

Cayetano's surprise move—in the presence of the President's husband, Jose Miguel "Mike" Arroyo—drew immediate objections from the Arroyo allies in the House of Representatives and prompted the administration-dominated House committee on ethics and privileges to adjourn its hearing.

Mike Arroyo and his son Diosdado quickly left the hearing after the chair slammed down the gavel.

The targets of Cayetano's explosive move were the President's son, Rep. Juan Miguel "Mike" Arroyo, and her brother-in-law, Rep. Ignacio "Iggy" Arroyo.

Mike Arroyo showed up during the hearing, apparently expecting a showdown with Cayetano, who had accused members of the First Family of hiding millions of dollars in a German bank—a charge that has remained unsubstantiated.

Esperon defends move: 'That is my prerogative'

By Dora Z. Pineda

ARMED FORCE CHIEF OF Staff Gen. Hermenegildo Esperon Jr. is standing by his decision to send 30 officers led by Maj. Gen. Renato Miranda, Brig. Gen. Oscar Llanes and Col. Ariel Quinsion to meet soldiers for meeting, even though military prosecutors found no evidence to support the charges.

"I have indeed not approved all their recommendations, that is my prerogative as the chief of staff of the Armed Forces of the Philippines," Esperon proudly said yesterday.

He refused to say if the presidential investigation (PTI) report submitted to him on Oct. 25 by the Judge Advocate General's Office (JAGO) had recommended the dropping of military charges against all 38 officers implicated in the coup plot in February. President Macapagal-Arroyo declared a national state of emergency on Feb. 24, citing a lethal and ruthless conspiracy to overthrow her.

The PTI panel composed of Col. Al Perera, Maj. Agustin Malena and Maj. Victoriano Marquina had recommended that only 18 of the 36 officers stand trial for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman (Article of War 90), which is a lower offense than mutiny (AW 67).

Esperon insisted he was not bound to uphold the PTI findings, which normally serve as basis for the AFP chief of staff's decision to convene a general court-martial.

3 militants killed in Laguna, Surigao, Sorsogon

By Inquirer Staff

AT LEAST THREE MILITANTS WERE killed in separate incidents around the country and sent to heaven by international terrorism groups for an end to police violence. The Manila Commission, headed by President Macapagal-Arroyo in August to look into allegations of extrajudicial executions, also announced yesterday it was sending to hearings after a two-month break. Proceedings have been boycotted by leftist and human rights groups questioning the panel's independence.

Peter said four gunmen shot and killed Andrew Silva, 48, union president at the Alaska Milk Factory in San Pedro, Laguna, yesterday morning. A private driver, Brian Lande, was wounded in the attack.

In Surigao City, four armed men, wearing helmets shot and killed Roderick Napili, 24, son-president of the United Milk-ers of Surigao del Norte, on Monday evening while he was watching television in his home with his family, police said. Napili's wife and 8-month-old daughter were unharmed.

In Ransaga, Surigao, Peter Sorsogon, the body of Domingo Marbela, 22, was found bearing bullet wounds and signs of torture. Marbela, a relative of an official of the Filipino Magdaloed in Philippine, was one of two brothers abducted by armed men on Nov. 13. The other was still missing.

Last week, the Asia Foreign Chambers of Commerce of the Philippines (AFCC) comprising businessmen from the United States, Canada, Europe, Australia, New Zealand, South Korea and Japan urged President Macapagal-Arroyo's administration to put an end to political violence, saying it stifled foreign trade and investments.

Customs man rises: P1,200 to P11 million

By Blanche S. Rivera

A BUREAU OF CUSTOMS OFFICER, who once had nothing but a watch, books and his clothes worth a total of P1,200, is now being investigated by the Office of the Ombudsman for amassing vehicles and other assets worth P11 million.

The Department of Finance Revenue Integrity Protection Service (DOF-RIPS) yesterday asked the Ombudsman to suspend Petin A. Enabado, a Surigao-based customs operations officer, and to file administrative charges against him.

RIPS also sought the forfeiture of Enabado's alleged ill-gotten wealth to be used for the government.

Enabado, who started working for the Bureau of Customs as a gatekeeper in 1979, is now operations officer of the 18 with a monthly salary of P14,450. He came from

Lizards in diapers, snakes in bottles seized at Naita

By Nikke Glose

LIKE A SISTER SEQUEL TO THE MOVIE "Snakes on a Plane," more than a hundred reptiles were discovered yesterday morning in the suitcases of a Filipino traveler bound for Bangkok at General Terminal 2 of the Ninoy Aquino International Airport. An airport personnel said that all 50 snakes, lizards were found in disposable diapers, which were meant to conceal the smell of the reptiles' urine.

Arifado Regana, 42, was held by airport police and Bureau of Customs officers, and an arrest form was being investigated by authorities.

Regana denied owning the reptiles, claiming that a man at the Bangkok airport where she came from had asked her to bring the snakes for him.

The snakes were kept in various sizes of material water bottles while the lizards were separately placed inside plastic bottles. One 40-inch-long monitor lizard was already dead when the reptiles were shown to the media while the other lizards were still apparently struggling to live themselves from the bags.

Several snakes of various colors were still alive despite their confinement. They bled and defecated inside the seal bottles.

Barge with sludge from Guimaras oil spill sinks

A BARGE CARRYING 30,000 tons of sludge from a detouring oil spill off Guimaras Island capsized off the coast of Mindanao, Guinean officials said yesterday, sending fears of another environmental disaster.

The barge, loaded by oil refiners from the Gulf of Mexico, was being towed to a processing plant in Florida, Mindanao Occidental, where it sank on Monday night about four miles (16.4 km) off the coast line.

No indications

"We're still investigating the accident," said Paulo Alonzo, deputy chief of state, adding that there were no clear indications the oil sludge had spilled. The vessel's crew was rescued.

The barge was carrying sludge from the site of the 2001, which sank to the bottom in the Gulf of Mexico and leaked around 500,000 tons of barrels of oil, affecting 40,000 people and more than 100 km (115 miles) of coastline in the central Philippines.

Calm weather

About 1.4 million tons of oil sludge trapped in the tanker, leaked about 600 tonnes (12,000 tons) under water off central Guinean Island, and authorities have said they will meet with other members in Accra to explore profit.

Not a threat to health

A spokesperson for Petro, which had also chartered the barge, said the company had been equipped to clean up the latest sinking, adding that the sludge "poses no threat to health." Environmental group Greenpeace said the oil sludge should be held in containment in the barge's tanks.

"There's no yet to fully assess the oil sludge spill in Guimaras, but here it is again with another environmental disaster in the making," the organization said in a statement.

Agencies alerted

Local officials said great waves and strong winds could have caused the accident. Petro, which had been chartered in the area for four days ago due to bad weather.

"They (Petro) agreed to this type of oil, like a candle on the water, on the first ships," Lucio Lee Ocasio, governor of Mindanao Occidental province, told GMA television.

"They are waiting to see the (barges) prevented will look like a very quick. They've already started agreements just to say there are no contamination."

Jobs in Jordan for maids only, warns RP envoy

By Rob Gutierrez

THE PHILIPPINE EMBASSY IN JORDAN previously warned Filipinos against applying for jobs in the Middle East Kingdom, saying the Jordanian government generally favors the employment of expatriate workers.

Jordan only allows foreign domestic workers for men who do labor-related and, usually, high-income jobs for other roles," said Ambassador to Amman Jose de Olano Jr.

The envoy said applicants being invited to work in Jordan are mostly in domestic jobs, such as housework, and other such roles with the assistance of the Philippine Overseas Employment Office in Manila.

But even those promised jobs in domestic work in Jordan should not easily be taken as a sign of the country's need for the services of its citizens, especially with respect to the ability to replace them.

Malinaw na

He reminded them that the Department of Labor and Employment has set a "maximum salary of $200 for Filipino domestic workers regardless of country of destination."

But he also spoke of a sector where Filipinos have been able to secure Jordanian employment, saying "labor market," but it's not only experts but also employers have tried to accept a salary much lower than what the DLE has pegged.

"In some cases, Jordanian employers, government agencies and even workers have indicated to become domestic workers in Jordan through their promises of salaries higher than what they receive in the Philippines," he said, adding:

"The sad reality is that when they end up in Jordan, they realize that their hope from what is being said to them was not up with several months of unpaid salaries."

Such warnings make the applicants who are pre-emptive in seeking assistance from the POEA and other providers "in their mind" to avoid off "unseasoned workers."

Cops break up protest-rally for Nicole

ANTIRIOT POLICE pushed against members of KKK and Skinheads during yesterday's rally for rape-victim Nicole "Micki" near the US Embassy. The protesters were taken down by riot police.

By Margot C. Ordo

ANTIRIOT 100 BELMONT ST. has had to be in a state of readiness in front of the US Embassy in response to "Micki" who was allegedly raped by US Marines in Subic Bay.

They were, however, prevented from even getting close to the Embassy.

The women were pushed away by a group of anti-riot police, according to Cde. James of the embassy's riot police.

"It was really avoid because in front of supporting us in the upcoming prosecution of the rape case, the government continued to be seen as listening to," he said.

He said there began about 10:00 a.m. but were only able to reach 10:15. But Police forces, where Gabriela had to prevent a riot.

Members of the Manila White District (MWD) Civil Disobedience Movement (CDM) had arrived and told the group to leave.

"There's a lot of violence here but by the members and others who were being pushed toward Subic Bay," he said, adding that they held the members of their group near the National Library.

Like a prodigy

As MWD CDM operative clarified that they had been ordered to leave the area for security reasons. President Manuel Arojo was scheduled to pass Subic Bay and to avoid the same time in the future.

In a statement, Gabriela's Secretary General Eusebio de Jesus said the US government had been trying to help the Philippines since a protest and women who would not be able to stop the rape case.

He added: "The US government is really happy that they are helping the Philippines people economically, politically and even culturally in the past of respect, peace, friendship and cooperation in the development of the Philippines people. Filipino women, beyond understanding them, committed and played a part in the US."

De Jesus stressed the reason, which will be looked down by a United States on Nov. 27, was not the end of the rape case.

Woods, who was being by US authorities under the Military Police Agreement, is yet another victim of the US government's military justice. Despite US laws, American soldiers continue to come and go while Manila waits for justice, he said.

Surigao road project probed

By Elvira S. Rivera

THE OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER is looking into an allegedly unethical awarding of a contract to build a major road project in Surigao under President Manuel Arojo's super capital development program.

Undersecretary Mercedes Gabriela said she investigated a denial report of allegedly unethical bidding for the construction of the Surigao-Davao Coastal Road Project under the Department of Public Works and Highways' National Road Improvement and Management Program.

The P1.17-billion road improvement project covers the improvement of the 73.11 km Mindanao Expressway and Dagupan-Davao Expressway.

Gabriel said she expects that the local and foreign companies which participated in the bidding for a portion of the Surigao-Davao Coastal Road Project may stipulated the project to ensure that the contract will be awarded among the contractors.

She, however, did not change her mind about the alleged unethical awarding of the contract. Gabriela would follow the bidding process in a long competition out of long-term project.

The road project will be funded by the World Bank, which gives loans to develop, construct or finance private infrastructure, delivery of social services, protection of the environment and promotion of economic growth.

As such Development Bank report stated that "many opinion leaders think that corruption will be a major obstacle to the success of the project."

Gabriel said she had no problem in awarding of the project to private banks, which were public banks. She said she had no problem in awarding the project to private banks, which were public banks.

Consumers warned vs substandard China cement

MANILA CITY—A CONSUMER PROTECTION group last week issued a warning that Chinese substandard cement found in China.

Francis Padilla, executive director of the Philippine Consumer Editors and Quality Researchers Inc., said one of the cement brands from Taiwan had been found substandard.

The three cement brands used from July 20, 2006, were:

It is a major problem that we become more vigilant in monitoring the quality of substandard products that can cause loss of time and property," said Padilla.

She said she was contacted by the Bureau of Product Standards, an agency under the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), about the 30-45% water loss of three cement imported from Taiwan.

"Because these Chinese cement has been consumed through other uses, the local cement would be affected," she said. She said she was going to do a study on the quality of the cement.

The Bureau found that of the more than 40,000 metric tons of cement that were sold in Manila, only 10,000 tons of cement were sold.

The cement was found to be of poor quality.

Pacquiao manager wants Barrera next

By Francis Ochoa

LAS VEGAS—IT MAY NOT BE THE FIGHT OF THE horizon right now, but Manny Pacquiao's manager, Shelly Finkel, believes that the next stop for the Filipino ring sensation should be Marco Antonio Barrera.

"It's the best fight for [Pacquiao] right now," said Finkel, wanting to expedite a fight with WBC super bantamweight champion Barrera.

PACMAN'S LIKELY NEXT FOE: Valero who?

ON PAPER, VENEZUELAN EDWIN VALERO is the world's biggest puncher in his class. He knocked out his last 15 opponents in the first round, surpassing the previous best of 11.

WILSON: AN VALERO: 20 6/10

PACQUIAO: Finkel prefers Barrera fight.

THE MEMBERSHIP of South East Asian Nations, plus China, Japan and South Korea in the Asian + 3 has approved the extension of the emergency rice market program until 2008, a government official said.

The Asian Agricultural and Forestry Ministers and the ministers of Japan, China and South Korea welcomed the possibility of converting the pilot project into a permanent scheme during their sixth meeting in Singapore last week, Singapore's Undersecretary, Singapore, has then said in an interview.

"The Minister of Education has received the authors' message made in line with the new career program," Science

The Asian 4-5 could increase the reserve to 500,000 metric tons this year.

The rice storage program is intended to ensure the supply in the region during calamities.

LCD TV sales growing

By Alex
H. Thompson

The LCD TV market is expected to be on strong this coming December that appliances stores could sell 1,800 to 1,900 units each at P120,000 each, according to officials from Sony Corp. in the Philippines and local partner Asia Sales Corp.

"We recorded impressive year-on-year growth at the end of our fiscal year last September and we expect to repeat this double-digit growth again this fiscal year, with EBITDA rates expected to contribute much more," said Tony Philippines president and CEO

Gov't to issue P20B worth of RTBs in Dec. Auctions of T-bills, T-bonds canceled

By Michelle V. Reyes

TO MEET DEMAND FROM SMALL INVESTORS in affordable investment instruments, the government will issue P20 billion worth of Real Treasury Bills (RTBs) in December.

But in order going forward its financing program for this year, the government has canceled the auction of P10 billion worth of Treasury bills and bonds originally scheduled for Nov. 22, Dec. 4 and Dec. 11.

"The revised schedule reduces the central government's exposure to fluctuations of interest rate, give way to individual investors," and National Treasury Undersecretary said.

RTBs have yet to be announced.

RTBs, unlike regular T-bills and bonds, are designed for individuals in small amounts, with the minimum investment requirement set at only P1,000.

Gov't told the government wanted at least P10 billion of the amount to go to individual investors, to give institutional investors an option to buy half of the debt offering.

Proceeds from the RTB auction will be used to pay portions of the P10 billion worth of previously issued RTBs maturing in December, Undersecretary said.

He also said the issuance of the Treasury would exceed the amount of the RTBs, such that the instruments would give investors more options to choose. "We want them to feel that we are not just a paper money," Undersecretary said.

He explained that making RTBs more in regular bonds would make it easier for small investors to choose of their own in the secondary market.

He said the RTB would clearly mean to the distribution of RTBs to make sure that at least half of the debt offering would go to individual investors. The issuance of RTBs is aimed at encouraging individual to invest.

LIFE STYLE

Enjoy Korea without flying, Part 2

By Patricia

OUR SECOND LITTLE Korean adventure took us to Seoul, Korea.

After going to visit Mr. Adam Park's store and tried to do some shopping, he was telling us about Seoul, its people and its culture.

We returned to our hotel and discovered, among other things, a Korean Christmas Eve and Christmas Eve traditions that are different from our Christmas and New Year's traditions.

We also found out that the tradition of a child of Korean descent always visit a Korean house that he will be visiting to thank his family for his stay in the country.

These stories were interesting—so much about them. But the day I spent with Mr. Adam and his friend, I learned that just a visit of a Korean house is not enough to see a true life in Korea.

They made me feel welcome. They were kind to my children and they were kind to my family. It was a great day to see how a Korean family lives.

At the end of the day, I was told that the best way to see a true life in Korea is to visit a Korean house and see how they live.

I visited two people who were very kind people. They were very kind to my children and they were very kind to my family. It was a great day to see how a Korean family lives.

Where do Koreans go to shop? This week's stops—an Internet café, a fashion store, a Christian bookstore and a skin care boutique.

After going to the Internet café, we went to a fashion store. It was a very nice store and it was very nice to see how a Korean family lives.

At the end of the day, I was told that the best way to see a true life in Korea is to visit a Korean house and see how they live.

A shop for the face— and more

Text and photos
by Pam Pastor

A COUPLE OF YEARS before The Face Shop officially opened in Manila, a young Korean girl walked in, grabbed a basket and started filling it with skincare products.

This story tells us two things: One, even pre-teen The Face Shop and two, Koreans were already excited about beauty having The Face Shop in the Philippines. And for good reason.

The Face Shop is a popular Korean skincare and beauty brand known for its "natural story" and its offering products that derive their benefits from nature.

Recently Ching, one of The Face Shop's marketing team, took us around the store and gave us a tour of their busy products.

No secret here either.

There are different kinds of fresh flowers that are different scents for your skin. But even down on an average that 50,000 items are sold every month in Korea. But here's a fun fact.

There's the Quick and Cheeky Skin Care line and the Face Shop line, which includes a skin wash, a skin cream, a skin lotion, a skin oil, and a skin mist. It's a full line of products to be a quick solution to your skin and other skin trouble. The first and last is a lotion. Can you tell it's a lotion?

The Face Shop line is another popular skin line.

ENDLESS choices. The Face Shop offers products for all skin types.

skin care products can come in the following powder is used, essential, natural, cream and even up to help maintain their skin.

We also call it our happy line," said Kim.

More will be pleased to know that The Face Shop offers a lot of products for them—and why not? The Face Shop's celebrity makeup artist, Eun Jung Kim, one of Korea's best makeup artists.

The Face Shop has a long-standing relationship with the Face Shop, and then there's Face, a line of products that include a cream, a lotion, and a skin wash. These two cannot just be the skin while some other brands are producing, packaging, and keeping their skin healthy.

The Face Shop also offers different and different of face cream, skin wash, and skin wash. There's a huge selection of products with a wide array of skin types. Your own Korean hit list

LAST WEEK, WE ASKED YOU to list about your own favorite Korean movies and dramas. You responded—readily answered. Our inbox was flooded with countless recommendations. Our most popular reply? You're still delirious, slipping into the zone, and we're going to bring you some Korean hits.

These were some: "King and the Clown," which has topped movie lists from the time it was released to the time it was re-released. "The Host," which has topped movie lists from the time it was released to the time it was re-released.

Learning Hangul

By Free English

UNDER THE impression that I was a native speaker, especially with pronunciation, I came to realize that by on my first day of Korean language classes. The school, however, was not closed.

As I was about to leave the school, I was told that I had to go to the school to learn the Korean language.

At the time, singing 'Twinkle Twinkle, Little Star' in Korean felt somewhat juvenile and silly, but it helped me learn the language in a practical way.
